

A photograph of a rustic interior. In the background is a large, weathered wooden door with a dark metal handle. Above the door hangs a lantern-style lamp with multiple lit bulbs. In the center is a white, octagonal-topped pedestal table with a single leg, holding a small vase of white roses. In the foreground, a light-colored dog lies on a tiled floor. To the right, a portion of a grey upholstered chair with a dark wood frame is visible.
